"All great art started from a great line"

- Andrei Protsouk

Art and Design Publishing represents Andrei Protsouk

Andrei Protsouk was born in Donetsk, Ukraine in 1961. Protsouk is a classically trained masterartist, finishing 3 prestigious art schools and graduating at the top of his class from the Repin Academy of Fine Arts, St. Petersburg, Russia. He moved with his family to the United States in 1994, to Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania where he owns a retail gallery, Andrei Art Gallery. He established Art and Design Publishing in 2000 and has since been busy promoting his artwork. His style has ever since been evolving and redefining. His artwork and techniques super cede originality and his subject matter, Love, aspires feelings of playfulness, beauty and passion into the eyes of his clients. From the outstanding efforts of his hands, his ideas and philosophies are embedded on canvases. He ensues to recreate mankind's most prominent beauties, to embrace and spread love. He wants his clients, "to hold, love and appreciate the slice of moments we hold most intimate with our souls." His novel, fine line technique uses defined and simple lines that compliment hot vibrant colors to create the most sophisticated, passionate and complex of feelings.

Andrei Protsouk has contributed to many charities and benefits with the donation of his artwork;
